About the Conductor

Dr. Mark P. Thomas

Dr. Thomas is a founding member of the Anthracite Philharmonic which he serves as Artistic Director and Conductor. He has been the music director of the Schuylkill Choral Society since 1986. Thomas has been recognized in both the United States and Europe for his passion, creativity, dedication, and leadership in the performing arts. The Republican Herald has recognized Thomas as a "person who has made a difference in our county."

About the Orchestra

The Anthracite Philharmonic was organized in 2009 and performed its first concert in July 2010 at the Yuengling Mansion in Pottsville. From that time, the orchestra has performed a variety of pops and classical concerts.

The orchestra's mission is dedicated to the promotion and performance of orchestral music. Central to its mission is to provide affordable, family friendly concerts for the community.
